A Special Request from Judith Maxwell

Tuesday, June 8, 2004 – Several weeks ago, I encouraged all e-network subscribers to take part in an external evaluation of CPRN by completing an electronic survey that is seeking stakeholder opinions on CPRN's research and outreach activities.

The response was very positive, and to those who took the ten minutes required to participate, my heartfelt thanks. However, we would still appreciate hearing from more of our subscribers.

The window to complete the survey will close this week, and it is vital we have input from as broad a cross section of our supporters as possible. If you have not already done so, please click on the link below, which will take you to the site of a 'point and click' questionnaire. There are also several areas where you can add your own comments about what we do and why it is important to you.

Your participation is a key element in an evaluation process that is very important to the future of CPRN.

We look forward to your input and appreciate your interest in, and support of, CPRN.

Sincerely,

Judith Maxwell
