A Special Request From Judith Maxwell

Thursday, May 6, 2004 – As an e-network subscriber, I already know that you are interested in CPRN and its work. I hope that you will consider extending that support by taking part in an external evaluation of CPRN.

I am asking you and other e-network subscribers to click on the link below and to complete an electronic survey seeking your opinions on CPRN's research and outreach activities.

In doing so, you will be making an important contribution to an independent evaluation being undertaken on behalf of Social Development Canada. The evaluation stems from a grant given to CPRN several years ago by the federal government.

It should take about 8-10 minutes to complete this 'point and click' questionnaire. There are also several areas where you can add your own comments about what we do and why it is important to you.

The results of this stakeholder survey go directly to the evaluators and will be incorporated in a broader evaluation process taking place over the next few weeks.

Your special contribution would mean a great deal to all of us at CPRN. The evaluation results will help us chart our future course.

We look forward to your input.

Sincerely,

Judith Maxwell
